Who We Are

Who is providing this notice?

Virginia National Bank

What We Do

How does Virginia National Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Virginia National Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Open an account
- Give us your contact information
- Deposit money
- Apply for a loan
- Show your government-issued ID

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

Our affiliates include Virginia National Bankshares Corporation. Additional companies include a statutory business trust entity and two bank services companies.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- Virginia National Bank does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Our joint marketing partners include companies that offer investments, credit cards, insurance and other financial products and services not offered by us.
